

WVDN MAY 19, 2021

THE WEST VIRGINIA
DAILY NEWS
PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING EXCEPT SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS
1000 MARKET STREET, MARTINSBURG, WV 26150
PHONE: 304-293-2200 FAX: 304-293-2201
WWW.WVDN.COM

Dear Abby
CINDERELLA
PAGE 2

JOHN Takes Sixth Place In Election Competition
PAGE 3

The Candidates For Romeverte Municipal Election Discuss The Issues
PAGE 4

Batman Challenges 8th Graders At EGMS
PAGE 5

The West Virginia Renaissance Festival Is Planning Hiring Fair
PAGE 6

Pipestem Park Foundation To Meet This Evening In Different Location
PAGE 7

WV NEWS
MAY 19, 2021
1000 MARKET STREET, MARTINSBURG, WV 26150
PHONE: 304-293-2200 FAX: 304-293-2201
WWW.WVDN.COM

Table of Contents

May 19 Holiday Host Ready to Ban Brother From Festivities 1

Margaret Ruth Spade Myles 1

Mary Sue Cooke 3

May 19 Holiday Host Ready to Ban Brother From Festivities 4

May 19 Holiday Host Ready to Ban Brother From Festivities

By Abigail Van Buren | WVDN MAY 19, 2021

Dear Abby: My brother "Patrick" and I have known "Bobby" for about 20 years. Patrick is closer friends with him because they live in the same town. Recently, we found out that Bobby's best friend was arrested for child pornography. While Bobby knew nothing about this before the arrest, he still wants to support his friend. I told Patrick he will no longer be welcome in my home (I host for all the holidays) if he doesn't cut off all contact with Bobby. My brother says I'm being too harsh because you can disapprove of someone's behavior and still be a friend. I think that child pornography is morally and ethically wrong and there is no middle ground here. What do you think? Should Bobby have a seat at our table? (He has no other living family.) —

Not Welcomed in the East

Dear Not Welcomed: I do not think you should excommunicate your brother because of something Bobby's friend did. I believe the Bible says that while you can hate the sin, you should still love the sinner, and that is what Bobby is doing. If you wish to check the reference, you may discover you have a copy somewhere in your home. You can review that chapter with your brother at your holiday table.

Dear Abby: I am 35, and my boyfriend is 31. We met at work and moved in together. It has been five years now and still no proposal. I thought we were on the same page, but he just purchased a brand-new muscle car and is only concerned about that, buying new sneakers (he has a sneaker obsession) and making more money. I currently share a rental lease with him and am considering going my separate way in three months, mainly because he is complacent and our relationship has become stagnant. It is going nowhere. Please help.

— Hoped for More in Pennsylvania

Dear Hoped for More: Getting to know someone takes time. Be glad you have realized this man isn't husband material before you wasted more time waiting for him to mature. Hang in there until the lease is up, then move resolutely on, parting I hope, as "friends."

Dear Abby: I have been married to my best friend since I was 15. I am now 50. I have never had an orgasm. I want to experience one so badly that I am willing to cheat. We have talked about our sex life, and how it has not been satisfying for me. Please tell me what I can do. —

Missing It In Indiana

Dear Missing: Before looking for sexual fulfillment outside your marriage, you and your husband should ask your doctor for a referral to a sex therapist. You both married very young, and he may never have learned how to please a woman. This does not mean he isn't capable of learning. Frankly, because you have never experienced an orgasm, YOU may need some coaching or some "pointers."

Dear Abby is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Jeanne Phillips, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Phillips. Contact Dear Abby at www.DearAbby.com or P.O. Box 69440, Los Angeles, CA 90069.

Margaret Ruth Spade Myles

By WV Daily News | WVDN MAY 19, 2021

MYLES

Margaret Ruth Spade Myles of Lewisburg passed away on May 15th, 2021 surrounded by her family who loved her endlessly.

Ruth was born in Pathfork, KY on November 18, 1937 to the late Ray and Hazel Spade.

Ruth, also known as Nana to many, was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. She was just as dedicated to her work, where she was a business entrepreneur and accountant. In 1986, she was handed a diagnosis that most people would not survive, but Nana never gave up, never conceded to her disability, and most importantly, lived her life to the absolute fullest. Her greatest love was for her children and grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 41 years, Joe Myles; her son, Stephen Myles; two brothers, Ray Jr and Charles; a sister, Phyllis Hollandsworth; brother-in-law, LT Lewis; and sisters-in-law, Norma and Carol Spade.

Left behind to cherish her memory are her daughters, Susie Myles of Lewisburg, Donna Kirby and her husband, Jamie of Grassy Meadows; daughter-in-law, Lynn Myles of Renick; grandsons, John Hunter Kirby (Leah) of Lewisburg and Logan Patterson of Norfolk, VA; granddaughters, Rachel Kirby (Jacob) of Grassy Meadows and Amber Robinson (Jerry) of Williamsburg, VA; and great-grandson, Gavin Robinson of Williamsburg, VA; two brothers, Tommy and Bruce Spade; and a sister, Mary Francis Lewis; brother-in-law, Jack Hollandsworth; and sister-in-law, Pauline Spade all of Middleboro, KY; and several nieces and nephews.

Nana had a desire to live this life to the absolute fullest, and her love gave happiness to so many people; and witnessing the unconditional love people gave her was what made it all worth it. Her strength, grace, and determination were something you only read about in storybooks. Nana had a host of wonderful caregivers over the years, with Mary Withrow caring for her for over 30 years.

Services will be held on Saturday, May 22nd, 2021 at Morgan Funeral Home. Family will receive friends from 11 a.m. to 12 noon with a funeral service beginning 12 noon, with Reverend Rick Brown officiating.

Flowers made her the happiest! In her memory, the family would like to fill the sanctuary with beautiful flowers of any kind.

We will be following COVID-19 recommendations and ask everyone to wear a mask.

Online guestbook can be signed at www.morganfh.net.

Arrangements by Morgan Funeral Home, Lewisburg, WV.

Mary Sue Cooke

By WV Daily News | WVDN MAY 19, 2021

COOKE

Mary Sue Cooke, 88, of Ronceverte, WV, passed away peacefully on Sunday, May 16th 2021, at Peyton Hospice House in Fairlea.

Sue was born December 29, 1932, in Ronceverte, WV, to the late Earl Elbert and Lena Mary Midkiff Taylor.

For many years, Sue worked as a cook at Greenbrier Junior High School. She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Ronceverte, WV, and later became a part of the Rhema Christian Center family in Lewisburg, WV.

Sue was a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was extremely witty and always knew how to put a smile on someone's face. She had a big heart and welcomed everyone she met with open arms. She always stood up against injustice and worked hard to make sure everyone felt included. Sue created community everywhere she went and was a blessing to all who knew her.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Stephen St. George Cooke; brothers, Earl Thomas Taylor and Fred Compton Taylor; and grandson, Joshua Stephen Cooke.

Left to cherish her memory are her sons, Stephen Brent Cooke and wife, Sheila, and Timothy Cosby Cooke and wife, Tonya; sister-in-law, Libby Taylor; grandchildren, Rachel Nicole Van Buren and husband, Rodney, Taylor Griffin Baumgardner, Tommi Jean Robson and husband, David, Tia Alise Cooke, and Evan Rigg Cooke; great-grandchildren, Alba Leto Baumgardner, Ava Grace Van Buren, Arley Griffin Grubbs, and Bea Lorraine Robson.

Graveside services will be held on Friday, May 21st 2021, at 11 a.m. at Riverview Cemetery in Ronceverte, WV, with Pastor Sam McClung officiating.

Visitation for friends and family will be held on Thursday, May 20th 2021, from 5-7 p.m. at Wallace & Wallace Funeral Home in Ronceverte, WV.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to Steve Cooke and Bob Baker Scholarship c/o The Greenbrier Valley Community Foundation at PO Box 1682, Lewisburg, WV 24901.

Please send online condolences by visiting www.WallaceandWallaceFH.com.

Wallace & Wallace Funeral Home in Ronceverte is in charge of arrangements.

May 19 Holiday Host Ready to Ban Brother From Festivities

By Abigail Van Buren | WVDN MAY 19, 2021

Dear Abby: My brother "Patrick" and I have known "Bobby" for about 20 years. Patrick is closer friends with him because they live in the same town. Recently, we found out that Bobby's best friend was arrested for child pornography. While Bobby knew nothing about this before the arrest, he still wants to support his friend. I told Patrick he will no longer be welcome in my home (I host for all the holidays) if he doesn't cut off all contact with Bobby. My brother says I'm being too harsh because you can disapprove of someone's behavior and still be a friend. I think that child pornography is morally and ethically wrong and there is no middle ground here. What do you think? Should Bobby have a seat at our table? (He has no other living family.) —

Not Welcomed in the East

Dear Not Welcomed: I do not think you should excommunicate your brother because of something Bobby's friend did. I believe the Bible says that while you can hate the sin, you should still love the sinner, and that is what Bobby is doing. If you wish to check the reference, you may discover you have a copy somewhere in your home. You can review that chapter with your brother at your holiday table.

Dear Abby: I am 35, and my boyfriend is 31. We met at work and moved in together. It has been five years now and still no proposal. I thought we were on the same page, but he just purchased a brand-new muscle car and is only concerned about that, buying new sneakers (he has a sneaker obsession) and making more money. I currently share a rental lease with him and am considering going my separate way in three months, mainly because he is complacent and our relationship has become stagnant. It is going nowhere. Please help.

— Hoped for More in Pennsylvania

Dear Hoped for More: Getting to know someone takes time. Be glad you have realized this man isn't husband material before you wasted more time waiting for him to mature. Hang in there until the lease is up, then move resolutely on, parting I hope, as "friends."

Dear Abby: I have been married to my best friend since I was 15. I am now 50. I have never had an orgasm. I want to experience one so badly that I am willing to cheat. We have talked about our sex life, and how it has not been satisfying for me. Please tell me what I can do. — Missing It In Indiana

Dear Missing: Before looking for sexual fulfillment outside your marriage, you and your husband should ask your doctor for a referral to a sex therapist. You both married very young, and he may never have learned how to please a woman. This does not mean he isn't capable of learning. Frankly, because you have never experienced an orgasm, YOU may need some coaching or some "pointers."

Dear Abby is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Jeanne Phillips, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Phillips. Contact Dear Abby at www.DearAbby.com or P.O. Box 69440, Los Angeles, CA 90069.